Dear Harold,

Things have been going very well since Duane and I got home. Both our new radios work perfectly and we're both quite happy with them and very grateful. Yesterday Duane got a temporary job as a cashier at the school bookstore, and may be able to get clerical work with the U. I went to look at my grades and was floored when I saw I had gotten a 4.0!

My father had sent some things to me. One was a Phila. Daily News series on the assass. I copied one article from it for you because it contained some quotes I though you'd want, esp, from Burkley.

Also enclosed with these was a letter I recieved from guess who? Our old friend P.S., same letter, same enclosure. I've enclosed a copy. Wonder what this guy is up to? Also, who else had received this? It smells bad to me, like a plan to snare the crazies into a misinformation trap. My instinct is to write him back saying I believe this is a forgery and telling him he is being used and if he'd like to avoid embarassment or trouble he should tell how he got the letter. What do you think? I'll hold off writing till I hear from you.

Hope everything is going well finishing up PM. Best to Lil.

Still,

Howard
